BARS

Multilayerladen

Probably my favourite bar in Berlin. Multilayerladen has a very cozy and chill atmosphere that's just... nice! The layers of benches and bunk beds draping from the ceiling give the space a unique and playful vibe, kind of like reliving your childhood treehouse days. It's a bit small, which I do think adds to the atmosphere, but just know that it's not one for big crowds!

klunkerkranich

Klunkerkranich is a beer garden / club on the top floor of a shopping mall car park - and it's incredibly cool! The vibe is exciting and artistic, yet casual and welcoming. Great music, great cocktails, beech chairs and sandpits and a spectacular view of the city... there's a lot to love about klunkerkranich!

BRUNCH

Café KRONE

Located just below Mauerpark, Café KRONE serves some of the best brunches that I have had in Berlin. They have a well-balanced menu that should cater for everyone, as well as super friendly staff that are happy to help with any special requirements. I recommend the pancakes with a side of more pancakes!

COFFEE

Bonanza Coffee Heroes

Bonanza Coffee is a humble little coffee shop just a few doors down from Café KRONE. It's the type of place that turns a coffee enjoyer into a coffee lover, very very quickly! They are true artisans of their craft with a profound level of precision and care, and it makes all the difference, because the coffee is exceptional. They also do epic pastries if you have a sweet tooth.

DINNER

Hofbráu Wirtshaus Berlin

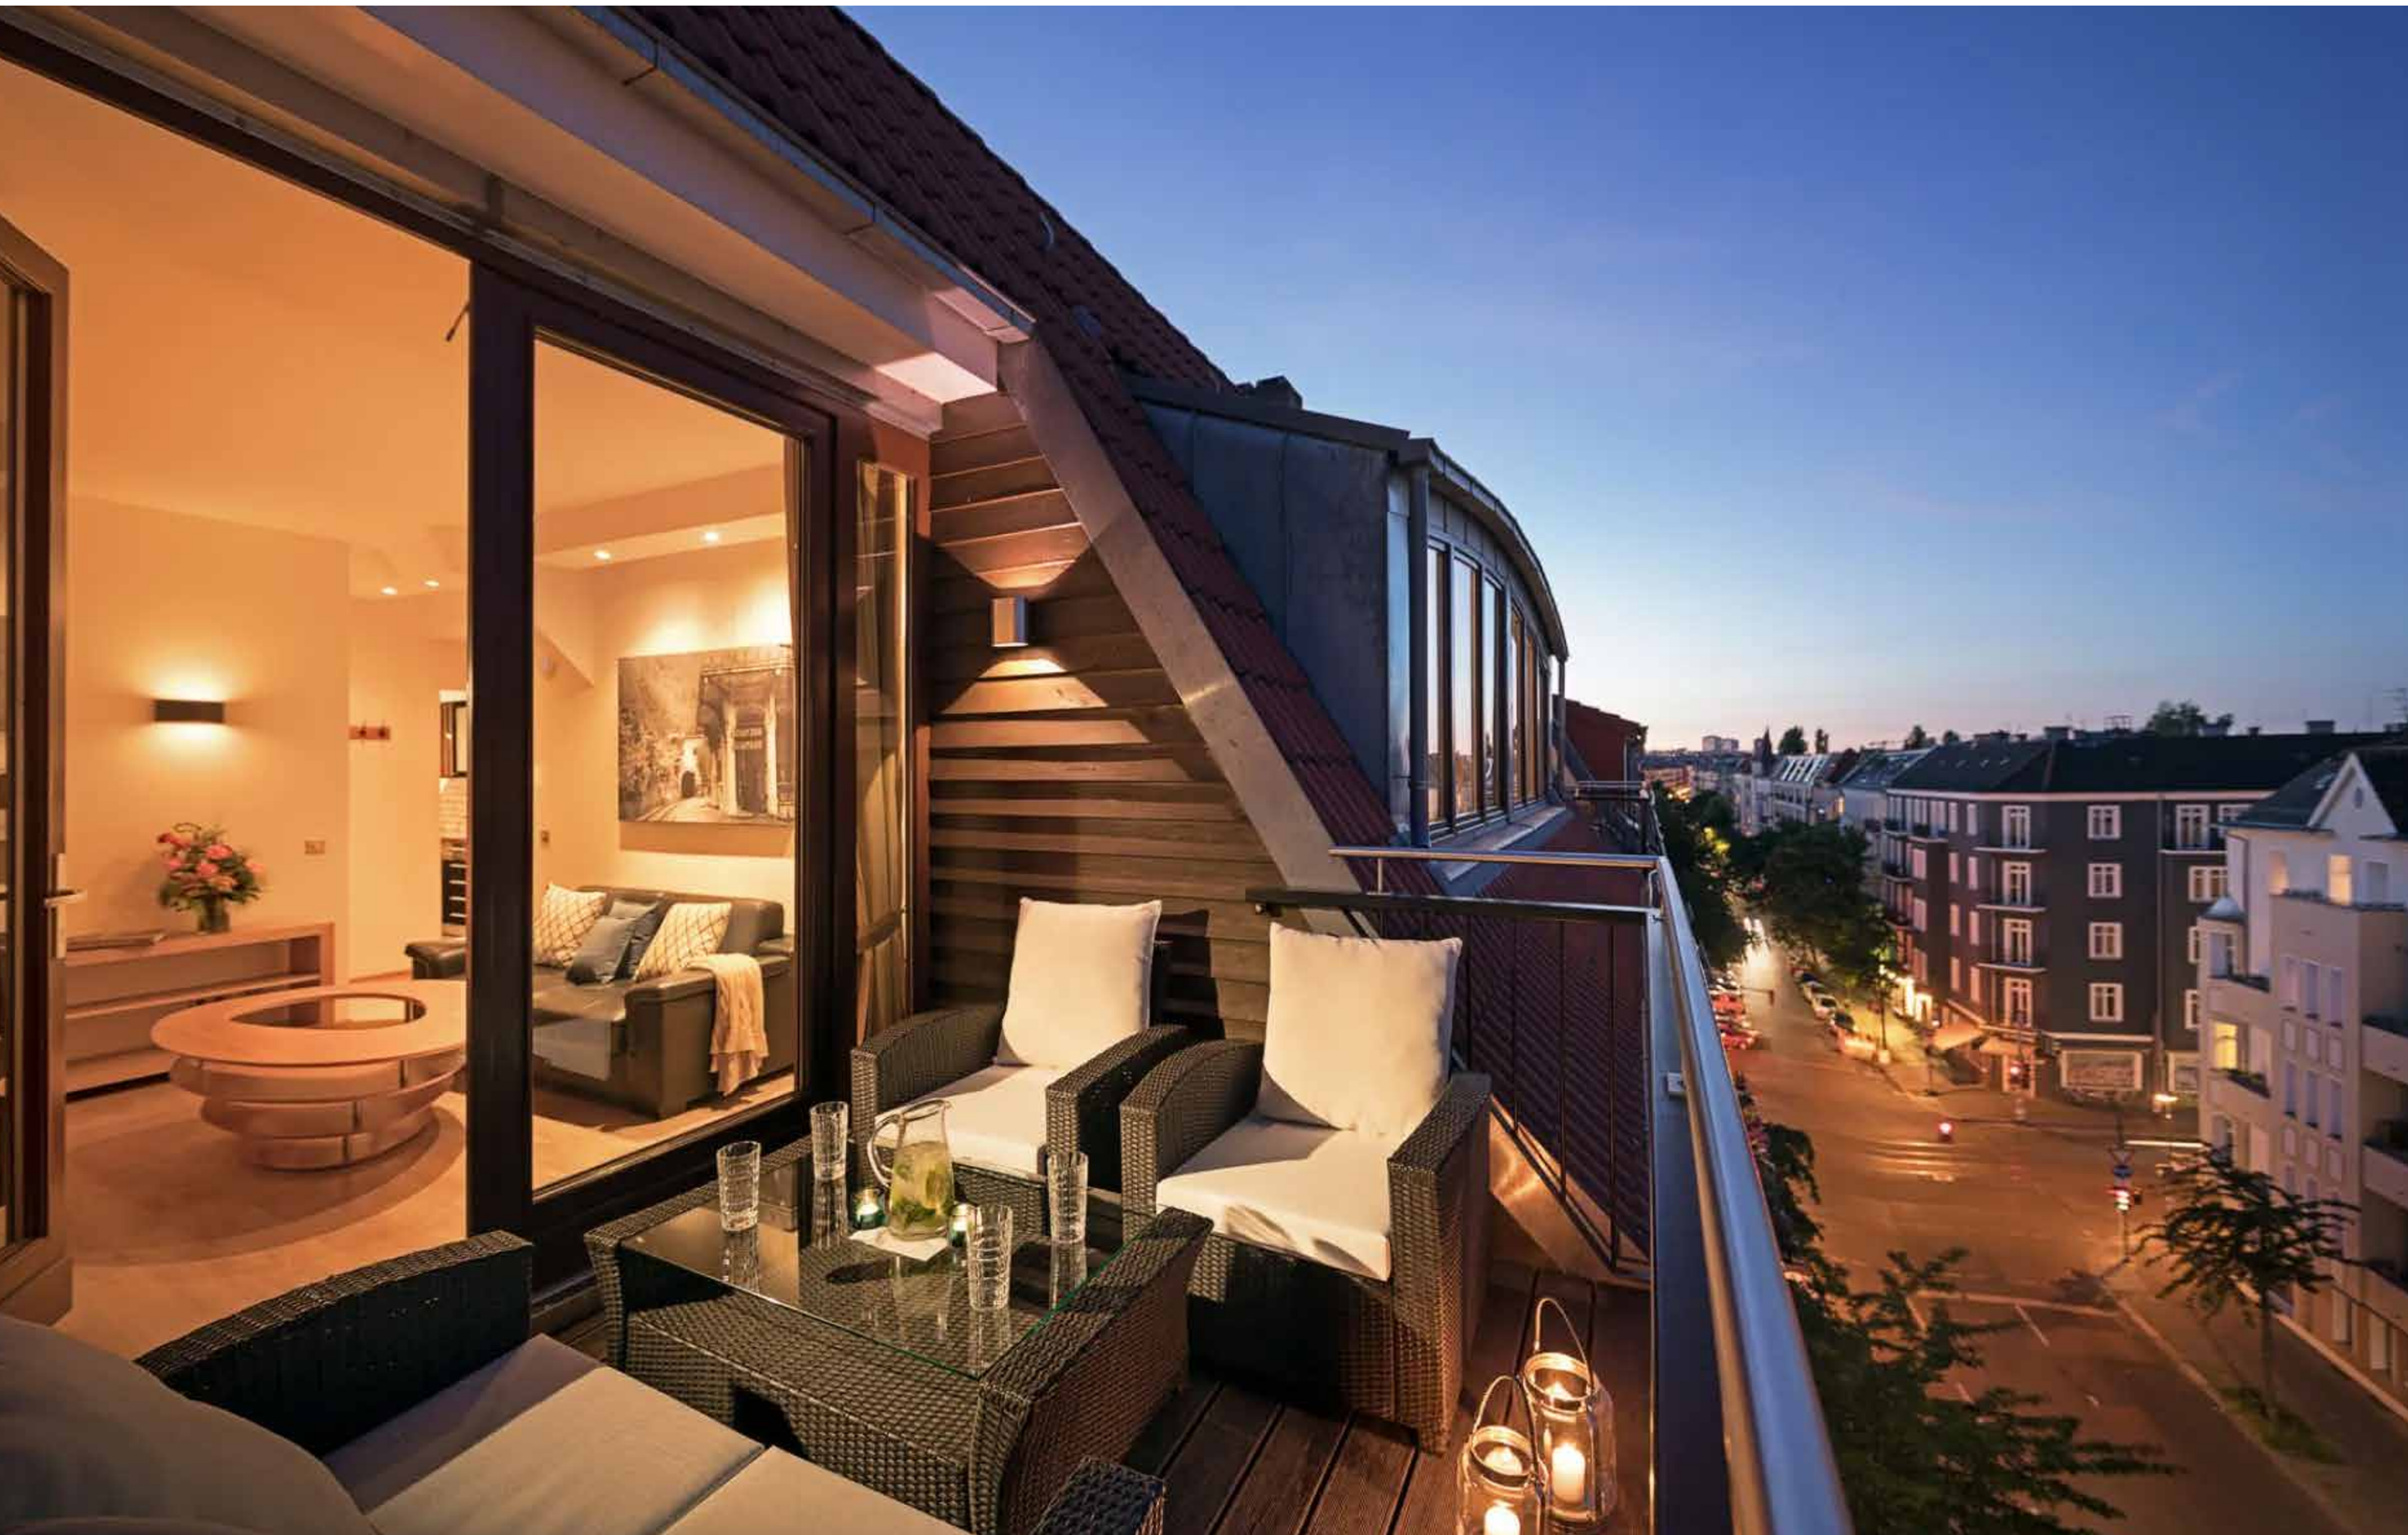

Hofbráu Wirtshaus is a Bavarian diner with excellent food and beer, and a thrilling atmosphere. You can get huge platters of traditional Bavarian food that are great to enjoy with a group of friends. They also host live traditional music which usually leads to beer-induced dancing. It's a lot of fun!

HOTELS

Although I haven't stayed in a hotel in Berlin, I wouldn't recommend it, Airbnb is the way to go here. Find a quirky apartment to embrace the creative and alternative culture of Berlin.

THINGS TO DO

Enjoy the great parks with a few beers – Tempelhofer Feld, Tiergarten, Mauerpark.

Party in a phone booth in Club Katerblau.

Get a kebab or two along the way.

Sporty type? Check out bouldering at Berta Block Boulderhalle.

Clubbing type? Check out Sisyphos or Trezor (although Google Berlin nightclub dress-codes beforehand).
